CHAPTER VII.

A YOUNG LADY BUYS A LOAD OF HAY. AS the magistrate given his decision yet?" asked Alma Jurnick as she met Orderly Alexander Borge in the corridor of the living rooms a few days after the trial.

"No decision has been made public, Mr. Jurnick. There is much secrecy. There is to be a squad of prisoners sent to Siberia in a month. I believe the American is numbered among them."

"Siberia! They would not dare! To send an innocent American to Siberia would bring on war."

"Not if he died," said Alexander, with a shrug. "Some who are numbered for Siberia never start. They die before the time comes. Hush! Here comes Colonel Jurnick."

He walked away without saluting her, and her face was devoid of expression when her eyes met those of her uncle.

"I have news for you," he said, closely observing the girl. "The governor is to give a ball to Prince Delnikoff. The prince will arrive in a few days. He will attend to his new official duties while here, and the governor wishes to entertain him."

"There is no objection, is there? What are the new duties of the prince?"

"He has been appointed inspector general of prisons for Stavropol, Tiflis and Astrakhan. It was probably through the influence of the general, your father, that he obtained this important post. I received a letter from your father today. Would you like to read it?"

"I will read it if you wish," answered Alma listlessly.

"It will save me the trouble of repeating his wishes to you. Take the letter to your room and study it. Consider well its contents. You will profit by meeting your father's wishes in this matter. You have been severely punished here. Hereafter I am going to permit you to have your own way. I want you to meet the prince at the ball. It may be necessary for you to make purchases. You are at liberty to use the carriage any day between 2 and 4."

"Thank you," said Alma. She bowed and went to her room.

"Some plot," she murmured as she shut her door. "What devilry is afoot now? So I am asked to read a letter from my father, the first of his letters that have been even spoken of to me."

A good friend of mine, and we spoke frequently in other days of the pleasure it would give us to see our only children united. Therefore do your utmost to arrange about this most desirable marriage. I shall not receive my daughter again until she comes to me as the Princess Delnikoff.

"What a kind and loving father!" exclaimed Alma as she crumpled the letter in her hand. "This is a threat—a threat that my uncle preferred to have me read rather than to tell me himself. Let them threaten! But I will attend the ball and will assist in entertaining Prince Delnikoff, the most dissolute prince in St. Petersburg."

"Have you received a letter at last, mademoiselle?" asked Marie as she entered the room.

"At last, Marie, I have been permitted to read a letter. It is not, however, addressed to me. It is one that was sent by my father to my uncle with some very interesting news. Prince Delnikoff is coming to Tiflis."

"Heaven! To be married?"

"I presume that is the real object. Openly he comes as the inspector general of prisons."

"Inspector general! He will be a proud one in that uniform."

"Why so, Marie? What distinguishing uniform does the inspector general of prisons wear?"

"All gold lace, mademoiselle. It is fine. I once knew the inspector general of prisons for Perm. He was a grand looking man in his uniform."

"I should like to see it," said Alma, with a smile. "I suppose I will have the opportunity soon."

"I have a book with all the uniforms of Russia. Shall I get it?"

"No, never mind. Well, get it. It will serve to pass away a few miserable moments."

Marie brought a little leather covered book.

"It is Alexander's, mademoiselle. He hopes for promotion and is studying the fine uniform he will wear."

Changed Meeting Place.

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—The Sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows has reconsidered its action designating Washington, D. C., as the meeting place for next year's meeting. By a unanimous vote Philadelphia has been selected in place of Washington.

A SLOW ADVANCE

Japs Are Apparently Taking Their Time on Road to Mukden.

A CONSIDERABLE FORCE

Has Been Detached From the Main Army and Sent to Reinforce Besieging Force.

No Fighting Worthy of Note Since the Great Engagement at Liao Yang.

While the Japanese are reported to be slowly advancing upon Mukden, there has been no fighting worthy of note between the opposing armies under General Kuropatkin and Marquis Oyama. The latter, according to the military critics at St. Petersburg, is likely to pursue tactics quite different from those essayed by the Japanese at Liao Yang, and it is expected that the attack will come upon the Russian front and flanks rather than in the form of an enveloping movement. Definite information from Port Arthur is very meager; inconclusive and minor successes there are reported. Russian spies allege that a considerable force has been detached from the Japanese army which captured Liao Yang and sent back to aid in the operations against Port Arthur. The formation of seven Russian rifle brigades for service in the far East has been ordered.

ON TO MUKDEN

That is Now the Slogan of Marshal Oyama's Troops.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 23.—The Japanese advance toward Mukden continues slowly, according to information received by the authorities here. Both official reports and press dispatches place Marquis Oyama's advance guard thirty miles south of Mukden, while stories printed in the foreign press that a great battle at

MARQUIS IWAO OYAMA, JAPAN'S CHIEF OF STAFF.

Mukden has already begun, are disproved by the actual development at the scene of operations. There is no question in the minds of the Russian authorities of the importance of Mukden to the Japanese as a winter base. It is believed the Japanese will exert every effort to push out the Russians, but it is thought a serious struggle for the possession of the town is still some days distant. The Japanese probably will have to reckon first with a stubborn defense of the Fushan mines, where the next important fight is expected to take place.

Judging by present developments, Marquis Oyama is giving up the idea of cutting Kuropatkin's communication to the northward and contenting himself with advancing upon the Russian front and flank in such fashion as to force the evacuation of the town and compel the Russians to retreat further north. The whole plan of the Japanese advance shows a considerable difference from the operations at Liao Yang. At the same time it is possible the Japanese are again making undisclosed movements, as they have successfully done in the past.

According to the best information Oyama has three armies concentrated south and southeast of Mukden, a fourth corps consisting of two divisions being detached to Dzianchan and thence sending out flanking columns northward and northeastward with the object of protecting Oyama's right and at the same time driving in the Russian outposts. An enveloping movement on such a large scale as General Kuropatkin essayed at Liao Yang is not expected. Evidently the Japanese realize that their strength is inadequate to justify another attempt to surround General Kuropatkin, who is now stronger by two army corps than he was at Liao Yang.

The report has gained some credence here that it is the intention of the Japanese to winter at Mukden if they can take the town and then hold on until an accumulation of Russian forces on their front compels them to retire to the Liao Tung peninsula and Korea, the retreat in this direction drawing General Kuropatkin after them. Orders have been issued to prepare seven rifle brigades for service in the far East.

All Quiet at Mukden.

Mukden, Sept. 23.—The situation here continues quiet. Small parties of Japanese skirmishers are pushing northward on the road from Bentala-puzze to Fushan. It is stated by Russian spies that Marquis Oyama has detached a considerable force to co-operate with the army before Port Arthur. The Russians have taken many Chinchus and prisoners, among them being found a number of Chinese regular soldiers. The weather has turned suddenly cold. The supplies of uniforms is inadequate and the soldiers are being supplied with Chinese padded overcoats, which have been bought in large quantities.

CRITICAL ILLNESS

Lady Curzon's Condition Creates Apprehensions of Royalty.

London, Sept. 23.—Lady Curzon, wife of the viceroy of India, is critically ill at Dover castle and is under the constant care of the king's physician and eminent specialists. It is understood that the long automobile ride Lady Curzon took on Tuesday produced a severe internal hemorrhage, necessitating the summoning of Dr. Champneys from London. The patient grew worse and is now in an extremely exhausted condition and almost comatose. It is reported that acute peritonitis has supervened. Lord Curzon, who is overwhelmed by the sudden blow, remains constantly by his wife's bedside.

OYSTER BAY DESERTED

The President and His Family Return to the White House.

Washington, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt and family returned to Washington last evening from their home at Oyster Bay, where they have spent the summer. The president was given a cordial welcome home by a large crowd of people as he came through the trainshed and walked out to the street where his carriage was waiting. The crowd lined both sides of Sixth street for a long time before the train arrived, and when he made his appearance he was enthusiastically cheered. In company with Mrs. Roosevelt and three of his children, he was immediately driven to the White House. The president and party traveled from Jersey City in a special train made up of the private car Signet, and two cars used for the transportation of the presidential horses and carriages back to Washington. In addition to the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, the party included Secretary Barnes and the White House clerical and messenger force of nine persons who have been on duty at Oyster Bay.

Another Cockrill Arrest.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 23.—William Britton was arrested in Breathitt county and lodged in jail here under an indictment as an accomplice in the murder of James Cockrill. Curtis Jett, who is serving a life sentence for killing J. B. Marcum, is under sentence to be hanged as the principal in the murder of Cockrill. Britton is a cousin of Judge James Hargis of Breathitt county. The shots which killed Cockrill came from the top story of the Breathitt courthouse. Britton says he was on the ground floor at the time Cockrill was shot. Among the witnesses was Riley Coldiron, who swore positively that he saw Britton on the second floor of the courthouse at the time that Cockrill was shot.

Herrick Will Resign.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Justice D. Cady Herrick, Democratic candidate for governor, will resign from the supreme court bench as soon as he can finish the legal work now before him. He announced that he will not open personal campaign headquarters until after his resignation from the bench is accepted.

A Quartet of Girls Break Down Door of Room Where Boys Were Gambling.

Laporte, Ind., Sept. 23.—Four young women, the Misses Hester and Elsie Worden, Miss Beal and Miss Connors, started a gambling crusade at Rolling Prairie, this county, by breaking down a door of a room where the young men of the village were gambling. They obtained the names of the occupants of the room and the young men will be ostracised socially if gambling and drinking does not cease. The young women have settled the damages incurred in their raid, and they say the crusade will be prosecuted until the evil is abated.

HASN'T ABANDONED HOPE

Dr. Beyers Continues Long Search for His Missing Boy.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 23.—Dr. L. H. Beyers, father of five-year-old "Rich" Beyers, missing since March 29 from his home at Seelyville, has gone to Vinita, I. T., to search for the boy. Two weeks ago Dr. Beyers was at the big reunion at Baxter Springs, Kan., where several hundred outfits of movers or so-called Gypsies had assembled. The doctors gave the movers pictures and circulars describing the missing boy. A few days ago he received three letters from Vinita describing a child in one of the movers' outfits, which tallied with the description of "Rich" to the smallest particular.

The Famous Wilder's Brigade.

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 23.—The thirtieth annual reunion of the famous Wilder's brigade is in session here, with General Wilder in attendance, besides a host of the old members. Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 23.—A meeting of citizens has been called to consider the smallpox situation. Three city schools have been closed because each had been exposed to the disease. All the cases are traceable to mistaken diagnoses and failure to maintain quarantine.

Miss Agnes Miller, of Chicago, speaks to young women about dangers of the Menstrual Period.

"To Young Women:—I suffered for six years with dysmenorrhea (painful periods), so much so that I dreaded every month, as I knew it meant three or four days of intense pain. The doctor said this was due to an inflamed condition of the uterine appendages caused by repeated and neglected colds. If young girls only realized how dangerous it is to take cold at this critical time, much suffering would be spared them. Thank God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that was the only medicine which helped me any. Within three weeks after I started to take it, I noticed a marked improvement in my general health, and at the time of my next monthly period the pain had diminished considerably. I kept up the treatment, and was cured a month later. I am like another person since. I am in perfect health, my eyes are brighter, I have added 12 pounds to my weight, my color is good, and I feel light and happy."—Miss Agnes Miller, 25 Potomac Ave., Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

CRUSHES OUT THE LIFE

The most loathsome and repulsive of all living things is the serpent, and the vilest and most disgusting of all human diseases is Contagious Blood Poison. The serpent sinks its fangs into the flesh and almost instantly the poison passes through the entire body. Contagious Blood Poison, beginning with a little ulcer, soon contaminates every drop of blood and spreads throughout the whole system. Painful swellings appear in the groins, a red rash, and becoming ulcerated, and the hair and eye brows fall out; but these symptoms are in no way compared to the wretchedness and suffering that come in the latter body. It is then that Contagious Blood Poison is seen in all its hideousness. The deep eating abscesses and sickening ulcers and tumors show the whole system is corrupted and poisoned, and unless relief comes soon this serpent disease tightens its coils and crushes out the life. The only antidote for the awful virus is S. S. S. It is nature's remedy, composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. destroys every vestige of the poison, purifies the blood and removes all danger of transmitting the awful taint to others. Nothing else will do this. Strong mineral remedies, like mercury and potash, dry up the sores and drive in the disease, but do not cure permanently. Send for our home treatment book and write us if in need of medical advice or special information. This will cost you nothing.

McClure's for October.

McClure's for October is timely in the best sense. It reads vigorously and intelligently some of the important lessons of the hour. In its serious articles McClure's does not deal with the cursory and the superficial, but with the vital, fundamental thing, and in its interpretation of the meaning and application. It is impressing itself tremendously on the life and thought of the day by its weighty and authoritative way of doing things. In the story of Governor LaFollette and the political war of Wisconsin, Lincoln Steffens has found material for a stirring story. Miss Tarbell has a chapter of "Conclusions" of her Standard Oil stories. There are several interesting pieces of fiction making it a notable number.

PARKER IN GOTHAM

The Esopian Candidate Calls to Stir the Leaders Up.

New York, Sept. 23.—Alton B. Parker's second visit to New York to confer with Democratic campaign managers is attracting much attention among the Democratic leaders, one or another of whom is almost constantly calling on him. Parker has followed the program of keeping his own counsel concerning the business he has with the callers. Parker's stay is uncertain. He told some of his visitors he should stay two or three days, and that he was not certain of his plans. Senator Gorman, who has taken the part of counsel to the national committee, is giving the benefit of his experience in the management of presidential campaigns, was one of the first visitors. He spent nearly two hours with Parker, but beyond remarking that he had a "pleasant chat," would not comment on his business with the candidate.

National Chairman Taggart had a long audience with Parker. He said the chances of carrying Indiana for the Democrats were excellent and that he believed the party was strengthened in every doubtful state by the ability of New York Democrats to harmonize their differences in naming the state ticket. Herman Ridder, editor of the New York Staats Zeitung, who has undertaken the campaign work among German Americans in what he calls the six doubtful states, gave the national candidate suggestions for general work. These doubtful states as he defines them are New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin. His plan is to have all the work of the national campaign concentrated on these states. He declares it a waste of time, energy and money to labor for states which are certainly for one side or the other.

Made a Weak Case.

Huntsville, Ala., Sept. 23.—Thomas M. Higgins was acquitted last night of the charge of murder in the first degree in connection with the lynching of Horace Maples. The case made out by the prosecution in the trial was weak and there was no convincing evidence connecting the defendant with the mob.

The Stomach is the Plan.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissue and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kidney Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold by A. J. Pellens and W. RAILROAD TIES.

Fertile Field For an Inventive Genius.

Notwithstanding the millions of railroad ties annually shipped from southern Indiana there is a railroad tie famine threatened. Railroads are now being forced to get their ties from Florida and other faraway points, so that the freight rates make the use of wooden ties almost prohibitive. The price of wooden ties has been raised repeatedly.

The Carnegie Steel company has orders from half a dozen trunk lines to make steel railroad ties that will stand the wear and tear. Half a dozen shapes will be experimented with by the Carnegie Steel company. The production of steel will be increased enormously if adopted for railroad ties.

Let some inventive genius discover a successful substitute for a wooden tie and his fortune is made.

FAIR EXCHANGE.

A New Back For an Old One—How it is Done in Seymour.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stop its agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new strong one. Follow the example of this Seymour citizen.

M. H. Ahlbrand, of south Walnut street, impliment and machine salesman says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy. I had a great deal of lameness in my back off and on for years. In the winter of 1898 my back was very bad and I went to Milhouse' drug store and procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I never used any medicine so prompt in relieving me. The treatment strengthened my kidneys and relieved the backache, besides toning up my general health. Since taking Doan's Kidney Pills I have never felt better in my life. My wife also suffered from backache and on taking this preparation she was as great benefit as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

The October Pearson's.

The October number of Pearson's Magazine presents as its leading article, "Samantha at the St. Louis Exposition," by Josiah Allen's Wife. Written in Samantha's well-known quaint up-state dialect, the story of her experiences at the Fair with Josiah, her old, closefisted spouse are rollickingly funny.

Besides the Exposition article, which has been illustrated by Grunwald, there are three other special articles. One, Albert Bigelow Paine's Thomas Nast article, with ten reproductions made from the originals of the famous cartoons; another, "Charcoal Burning," and still another, a timely paper, "How the American is Changing His Food."
